DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-31 and 35-37, drawn to a method, memory medium, and system for estimating a thickness of a wall of a lumen from an image comprising performing triangulation, analyzing edges, and comparing triangle edges corresponding to width, classified in class 382, subclass 276.
- II. Claims 32-34 and 38-44 drawn to a method, memory medium and system for estimating a thickness of a wall of a lumen comprising computing tiling, edge flipping, inserting vertices, constructing an edge from the vertices, ;labeling cross edges and comparing cross edges, classified in class 382, subclass 276.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are directed to related methods. The related inventions are distinct if the (1) the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect; (2) the inventions do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; and (3) the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the inventions as claimed have different method steps which comprise different modes of operation and function. In the case of Group I, the method comprises performing triangulation, analyzing edges, and comparing triangle edges corresponding to width. Whereas, the invention of Group II comprises steps which are different, including estimating a thickness of a wall of a lumen comprising computing tiling, edge flipping, inserting vertices, constructing an edge from the vertices, ;labeling cross edges and comparing cross edges, leading to a different search of the art.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
